

Nothing But You

In every joy, In every pain
With everything inside of me
I lift my gaze to You, to You
In every loss, in every gain
With everything You've given me
I give my praise to You, to You

You're calling me into the light
So I'm leaving nothing behind

*Here is my heart
This is my everything
Take it and make me new
Search every part
I release everything
Take it and make me new
Leave me wanting nothing but You*

In every love, in every lie
With every wrong I've done
I can lift up my eyes to You, to You
In every whisper, In every cry
With every breath I'm drawing
I will live my life to You, to You

You're calling me into the light
So I'm leaving nothing behind

*Here is my heart
This is my everything
Take it and make me new
Search every part
I release everything
Take it and make me new
Leave me wanting nothing but You*

I surrender, I surrender
I open up my hands and
I surrender, I surrender
I open up my hands and
I surrender

You're calling me into the light
So I'm leaving nothing behind

*Here is my heart
This is my everything
Take it and make me new
Search every part
I release everything
Take it and make me new
Leave me wanting nothing but You*
